

Transforming care and positive behavioural support Eastern England

27 June 2018

10.00 - 16.00

The Trinity Centre, Cambridge

If you support people who have a learning disability and/ or autism who display or are at risk of displaying behaviour which challenges, including employers, commissioners and anyone involved in workforce development, come along to this free event.

The workshop will focus on positive behavioural support (PBS) and how you can use it to support you in your role. You'll also help to shape a workforce development strategy for PBS and transforming care for your local area.

The event will:

- explain what PBS is and how it can support people with a learning disability and/ or autism
- share good practice examples of training around PBS and autism and what's happening already locally
- identify gaps and opportunities to improve local PBS training and support
- shape local workforce development around PBS
- initiate or support local PBS networks.
